Purim Jews Will Purge These "Anti-Semites"

"THE PROTESTANT" Marks Us For the Purge

A GOOD FRIDAY MESSAGE TO ALL CHRISTIANS

In the Chicago DAILY NEWS appeared an advertisement on April 18, sponsored by "the Chicago Regional Action Committee of THE PROTESTANT", Kenneth Leslie, National Chairman; Rev. Paul J. Folino, Chicago Chairman and 41 "Christian" ministers who signed their names to it.

THE PROTESTANT is a Jewish front magazine issued in protest of the teachings that Jesus Christ was not "accepted" by the Jews as their Messiaiah.

THE PROTESTANT says He was not crucified at the behest of the Jews who had accepted Him, but by "certain official leaders", the Sanhedrin. Hence it is "anti-Semitic" to blame the Jews and to repeat "The LIE" every year from millions of pulpits during Lent.

PLAYING BOTH SIDES AGAINST THE MIDDLE

It is remarkable that finally, in self-defense, the Jews are forced to finance a magazine and subsidize a number of sectarian churches and ministers to expose the Sanhedrin as THE ENEMY of the Jews, as the real nest of anti-Semitism.

As you will read the text of the advertisement you will be surprised to find, after painstaking study of history, that it is true in this particular phase:

"The (Jewish) people heard Him gladly" and He was persecuted only by the political ecclesiastical machine of His time.

The irony of this Good Friday advertisement in the Chicago DAILY NEWS lies in the fact that the political ecclesiastical machine of the Jews of today finances THE PROTESTANT as a magazine to indict the very financiers behind this advertisement. The uninformed American does not know that the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League is behind these denunciations of the Sanhedrin of Jesus' days to protect the more murderous and treacherous Sanhedrin of today which causes these wars, economic depressions, strikes, Communism, Fascism, Nazism, revolutions and hate programs, like the Morgenthau Plan, and incites the "Purim Jews" to prepare to massacre, as in the days of Mordecai-Esther, all "anti-Semites", yes right here in these United States.

Following is the text of the advertisement:

A GOOD FRIDAY message to all Christians

AS A FREE CHRISTIAN PEOPLE WE CANNOT PERMIT THE CROSS OF CHRIST TO BE USED AS A BLUDGEON IN THE HANDS OF THOSE WHO WOULD USE THE JEWS, OR ANY OTHER RELIGIOUS OR RACIAL GROUP, AS SCAPEGOATS IN THEIR THRUST FOR FASCIST POWER OVER AMERICA

As Christian ministers we speak to you from our hearts

Tomorrow we commemorate the Crucifixion of Jesus. We witness again as a Christian people the willingness of a Great Love to make the ultimate sacrifice so that all men might be free to share in the forgiving grace of God.

However, as we remember Golgotha we are gravely concerned on this Good Friday over the manner in which the Crucifixion story will be interpreted in many American pulpits by minister and priest.

We are aware through our theological studies that all too often in the past Christian leaders have twisted and distorted the tragedy of Calvary so as to leave the impression that the Jewish people were responsible for the death of Jesus.

We can never forget that Jesus was a Jew. So popular was He with His own people that the Gospel says, "the people heard Him gladly," and "followed Him in their multitude." It is our belief that the life and death of Jesus are a tribute to the Jewish people, not only for having produced Him, but for the way in which they received Him.

In fact, it was His very popularity which led to His downfall at the hands of the political ecclesiastical machine of His time. It was at night they tried Him because they feared the wrath of the people.

We have no record whatsoever of Jesus denouncing His own people as He did violently denounce certain official leaders. On the contrary, nothing but weeping, nothing but words of affection come from His lips for His people.

Christendom, sometimes by indirection but often directly, has placed the whole Jewish people under condemnation, misreading the sympathy of Jesus for His people as the angry judgment of God against His people.

This misrepresentation has led to the existence of a deep and fertile soil for Anti-Semitism in the minds and hearts of all who live within its influence. This misreading of the Scriptures has been the indirect cause of the Ghetto, of the Pogrom and of the persecution which the Jews have suffered down through the ages into our own time.

Christendom can no longer stand silent in the fact of the great lie about the Crucifixion which has set the stage for the vicious and brutal Anti-Semitism we see in the world today.

We see on all sides would-be American Hitlers, who choosing Anti-Semitism as their first, their favorite, their most important weapon, would accomplish if they could the triumph of Fascism in America. They know well how deeply imbedded in the Christian community is the latent Anti-Semitism which has its rootage in the twisted and distorted interpretations of the Crucifixion.

On this holy day in the Christian calendar year, we pledge ourselves, along with 6,000 other Christian ministers associated with THE PROTESTANT, to do all in our power through preaching, teaching, and by direct action, to eradicate forever from America the "Christian" sin of Anti-Semitism.

(Follow the names of 41 ministers and Chicago congregations).

Sponsored by the Chicago Regional Action Committee of THE PROTESTANT. Kenneth Leslie, National Chairman; Rev. Paul J. Folino, Chicago Chairman.

6,000 ordained Christian ministers have pledged themselves to smash Anti-Semitism and to undo, through their preaching and teaching, the ill effects of previous false teaching. Help them carry on their task through the Ministerial Action Committees of THE PROTESTANT by contributing as generously as possible.

(Follows name and addresses of treasurer to whom donations should be sent).

PLAYING AMERICANS FOR SUCKERS

One must heartily agree that the Sanhedrin had Jesus crucified because He was too well received by the mass of Jews who were fleeced by the Temple priests; also because he broke up the Kosher Butcher Union and introduced the vegetarian communion feast in place of the pascal lamb at the passover. Jesus was a member of the Melchizedek order who were all vegetarians.

While it is marvelous that the Anti-Defamation League finances the truth about the Crucifixion, it is nevertheless a Judas trick, because while kissing the Truth, for once, they at the same time finance the Purim Jews who "cast lots to stand up for their lives" as in the days of Mordecai-Esther.

A closer view of the actual purpose of above advertisement is to announce to the world that all who state the historic facts of Jesus' rejection as the Jewish Messiaiah are anti-Semites to be purged by Purim Jews, by all means.

If the mass of modern Jews receive Jesus as their Messiaiah why don't they say so?

That's the Judas trick. They kiss Jesus in THE PROTESTANT and denounce Him as an enemy of Judaism in THE SPECTATOR and a thousand other periodicals and Synagogues. But they conveyed nicely by their Judas kiss who the "anti-Semites" are, to be purged by the Purim Jews: All churches and its congregations that "interpret" the Crucifixion as a rejection of Jesus by the Jews as their Messiaiah.

Every refugee admitted by Truman to our shores increases the army of Purim Jews. Yes, they have regional action committees not only in Chicago but all over.

The Communists of California have threatened violence and bloodshed in the most serious form the next time Gerald L. K. Smith speaks in Los Angeles.

GLENDORA, Calif., April 25, 1946

Dear Dad:

About forty men, including myself, have stopped work at CPS No. 76 for the following reasons: two men have received notice to report to CPS No. 148, Minersville, California, without their consent to the transfer. Eighty-seven percent of the men in the army at the time of the Japanese surrender have been released, while only 44 percent of the corresponding number of conscientious objectors have been released. We receive no pay, no allotments for dependents, and no accident compensation.

Although we have stopped work for the government, we have not stopped doing work of "national importance". Packages of food are being prepared and sent at our own cost to European families in need. Names of these families have been secured thru the American Friends Service Committee, various churches and private individuals.

We do not know when the work stoppage will end. The director has said we will suffer the consequences if we do not return to our assigned duties, and has evinced no sympathy for our action in any way. The assigned duties which I have been carrying out the past few days have been so asinine and unnecessary that I personally feel that it was about time I was doing something useful during the hours I am in camp. The waste of labor here in Glendora has been up until this time increasing tremendously.

Since we have severed ourselves from all camp duties, we are not preparing food or washing dishes. At noon today there was food prepared by the government steward and a few cooks who are still working. There were not, however, any clean dishes or knives, forks, spoons. No noon meal. I am the only man who is not affected by this policy as regards the food. I seldom use utensils any more because I eat mostly raw foods. I am now on raw food exclusively.

There has been no government action taken against us at this time, but I'll let you know as new developments come up. Love, DAVID

Is Truman a Bishop or a Son of a Bishop?

PREACHES 'SERMON' to MINISTERS

WASHINGTON,—President Truman told a group of churchmen that he fears that the country is beginning to lose sight of its post-war responsibilities in the world. The chief executive asserted that the nation cannot shirk those responsibilities.

He informed more than 100 members of the ministerial Union of Washington that he needs their prayers. The delegation called on the president at the White House.

The president declared that the United States had come out of the war as a world leader with the "greatest production machine in the history of the world.

"It came out with all the best things that are in us brought to the surface," he said, "but since V-J Day, I fear very much we are losing sight of our responsibilities. God intended us to assume them 25 or 30 years ago and we shirked them. We can't shirk them now."

The president declared that "the world is at the crossroads."

"One of the immediate things which we are faced with is feeding the starving. We must make sure that one of those four horsemen does not triumph over the victory which we have won for the welfare of the common man.

The president told the churchmen that they can re-awaken in the people of the country "the moral responsibility that goes with leadership." He asserted:

"Right here at home now we are having a lot of unnecessary troubles, brought about by selfish men who are thinking only of their individual welfare.

"The doctrine which you teach is the doctrine on which the world is founded. There never has been a system of morals equal to the Sermon on the Mount. When we find something wrong with our neighbor, often is a 50-50 proposition. If you meet a man half way, nine times in 10 he will come half way."

WOULD PREACH SHARING

The president expressed the hope to the churchmen that they go back and tell their congregations that the starving world must be fed, "and I hope you will go back and preach sharing our homes with people who haven't any."

The president's talk, almost a sermon itself, stated that the country is lost if it is ruled by "selfishness and greed."

DID TRUMAN TALK WITH GOD AT POTSDAM?

When FDR started out asking the country to join him in a prayer of love for our enemies we asked our readers to take him at his word. The good Lord also took him at his word. Now he and Hitler have all eternity to love each other.

All that hypocritical love-your-enemy-stuff was written for FDR by his Satanic Ghost, one ex-judge Rosenman and poor FDR merely mouthed badly what the Ghost had concocted for the Goyim.

Rosenman also "inspired" Truman to yield to Stalin at Potsdam. Those Jews always know more about Christianity and the Sermon on the Mount than Jesus Himself did. They always use it to tell us to be generous and let our hearts bleed for the murderous Purim Jews, the Besboznik (atheist) Russian Mongols and the imperialistic British slaveholders. And not only be "generous" for their benefit but also supply the men and war material to kill all opposition. This is the type of "Sermon on the Mount" Rosenman has fed FDR and now Truman. Truman is no bishop, but when he repeats Rosenman's Talmudic perversion of Jesus' teachings he certainly proves himself a son of a bishop.

Did Truman consult with the Almighty before he loosed those two Atom bombs on defenseless Japanese, men, women and children? Did God intend us to assume this responsibility or what is Satan himself, as Jesus warns us against the Rosenmans and his ilk in St. John 8:44.

It was Moses who continually claimed to hobnob with the Almighty when he instigated some dastardly feat. Read Numbers 31:17 where he instructs in the name of Jehovah, how to murder the Midianites by exterminating all and keeping only "all the women-children, that have not known man by living with him," alive for the Jewish soldiers. Nice Jew, eh?

If we are to follow the Sermon on the Mount why does this son of a bishop prevent us from feeding, at personal expense, our friends and relatives in Germany? Who is it that keeps on sending $300,000,000 lend-lease supplies to Russia? Who is it that raises our taxes to pay usury interest to the Rothschild Federal Reserve Banksters on "money" those usurers never had, never loaned us, but misused the USA credit, by crooked laws, passed by a stupid and corrupt Congress, twisted into expropriating our credit, so they use it as THEIR asset by which we donate them capital and interest forever after.

Yes, these politicians, turned preachers for the Devil, tell us to be good murderers of all who oppose Russian and British imperialism, enslave the world to them, finance them and after devastating the world, feed the starving to make them good slaves for Churchill and Stalin and the likes of Rosenman, while all the others must be exterminated by starvation. Jews get food parcels while Germans don't.

Does Truman imagine that he has succeeded in keeping it a secret that Hitler gassed and burned more Christian opponents of the Nazi regime than Jews? Does Truman imagine that the world lost count of the 35 million murdered slave laborers of Stalin?

Let Truman preach his sermons to the Usurers who refuse to "lend" the billions out of generosity, billions which they never had to loan, but purloined from the credit of the USA by crooked legislation. But Truman is the mouthpiece of that very ilk so he continues to preach the Talmudic perversion of the Sermon on the Mount to persuade the suckers that American individualism is selfish, while Jewish usury, British imperialism and Russian dictatorship is the quintessence of divine love. For does Truman not hobnob with God and knows what the Lord intended us to assume 25 years or 30 years ago? Did God tell him to join the Pen-dergast gang, too?

Is Arthur (the Voice) Bell a Swindler?

RUBY V. CHAPMAN ON THE WITNESS STAND

By C. Leon de Aryan

I had been asked by my friend Chester C. Cook of Azusa, California, to "take a gander" at the "greatest confidence racket" of the day, under the able management of one Arthur L. Bell, head of "Mankind United" and of "Christ's Church of the Golden Rule". Such investigations are always thankless jobs because whichever opponent loses, then, charges unfairness and claims that he was "unjustly smeared". Also, at times, they claim that the "investigator sold out to the other side". For this reason I am very slow in undertaking any such task unless there is real good cause for doing it.

Chester insisted that under the mantle of "Christ" Bell was "hypnotizing his dupes" who simply followed him blindly and to their own detriment. Since the name of the Christ was dragged in, then, I could not refuse.

I have reported what findings I made in previous items appearing in THE BROOM. On Friday, April 26, at 2 pm, I walked into Judge Benno Brink's court room, in the Post Office building in Los Angeles, to listen to the testimony of Bell's wife, Ruby V. Chapman, who is reputed to have financed Bell's activities with mysterious money which the Attorney General of California would like to trace to its source, since she is supposed to be the greatest swindler of the bunch. Also the federal trustees for the "Church" estate would like to know just how much money she gave Bell to operate on and how high, therefore, her claim against the assets of the estate is to be rated.

The trustees in bankruptcy are there, allegedly, to protect the "Church" estate for the benefit of its creditors as well as members. After the creditors are satisfied the residue is to return to the membership. But—the membership, with exception of a handful of "rebels" like Chester C. Cook, have turned over their shares in trust to Arthur Bell, so that the trustees are now allegedly operating to protect Bell against his wife who claims to have advanced the monies that made the operations of Bell possible which skyrocketed from a few thousand dollars to almost 7 millions as some of the "rebels" allege.

Ruby Chapman is a typical Christian Science practitioner in appearance, and may we say, in action, meaning of course the intelligent type of practitioners, which is not generally the rule. She looks late fifties and I was fascinated to watch her stick to principle and never betray her trust as hard as the attorney for the federal trustees badgered her and the judge.

They wanted to find out where she got her money, how much, when she got it, how she got it, where she kept it, how much she turned over to Bell, what for and when and how she expected to get it back. She never told them, saying she trusted her husband to handle everything.

To understand her answers and appreciate her position one must get her viewpoint first. Now I never talked to the woman, nor did anyone from the "Church" give me any dope on her or the financial transactions. I am telling you what became as plain as daylight to me while listening to her testimony and watching the actions of her examiners and the judge.

In the first place, I am certain that neither the Attorney General nor the trustees appreciate Mrs. Chapman's position. They and the court seem to give her the worst of the doubt, or should I say they give her the short end of their own ignorance of her position. The woman made a perfect witness for the "Church" and for her husband.

She stands on her prerogative that unless a crime can be proven against her she need not defend her actions. So she refuses to defend herself or explain any of her actions in such details as would give her tormentors the sought for opportunity to increase the charges already brought against her husband by the Attorney General, which seem to prejudice the trustees against Bell and his wife, too. Neither does she give any replies that could be tortured into confirming the suspicions raised by the Attorney General. Her attitude and her perfect adherence to Principle simply drove the court, as well as the trustee, to exasperation. They are loath to find the answer to the riddle in the integrity of the woman and of her husband and so they continue to deny them the benefit of reasonable doubt, because it appears to them beyond reason that the woman and her husband could possibly be the symbol of integrity which their loyal followers consider them to be. But as the astronomers had never seen Neptune, still from the facts available calculated Neptune's existence, so from the facts presented I was able to figure out what really had happened, how Bell got his start and what the "Church" owes Ruby V. Chapman.

THE REVOLVING FUND FOR IDEALISTIC PURPOSES

When Jesus was confronted with feeding the multitude he took a few loaves and "fishes" (really honey cakes in the shape of fishes), blessed them, broke them into small pieces, had them passed around. Everybody took a morsel, broke the taboo of not-touching bread with a neighbor of another creed or caste. When this prohibition was annulled, all present pulled out their private provisions, SHARED THEM with their neighbors. Everybody had their fill, and twelve baskets of garbage was left over.

That's exactly what Bell and Ruby Chapman have been doing. She believed in the "miracle" of Jesus and when Bell proposed to re-enact it for the benefit of those who would follow his instructions, what money she had, like the 12 loaves, she placed at Bell's disposal as a revolving fund. All she asked was that every time he borrowed some he make the recipients deposit a receipt to her name. This they did.

Bell organized a gang of followers who had implicit faith in him and did as told. Then he went with a few hundred, or thousand dollars, bought an option on some property, threw his gang of workers into it, improved it, watched the market for a rise, then sold it at a huge profit which went into the revolving fund. He is holding all this in trust for the Christ to feed those followers who have consecrated themselves to free the world from the curse of war and usury.

So, not even the judge could elicit from Mrs. Chapman how much money she gave Bell, because the true value was NOT IN THE CASH but in the faith of herself, husband and the members. Without that faith and the SPIRIT OF THE CHRIST SERVICE Bell would have been nothing but another Bernard Baruch who amassed millions by gambling in Wall street but used his power to inspire Wilson and FDR to make war. Baruch is "honored", Bell is dragged into jails and persecuted as a "seditionist" against Baruch's Sanhedrin.

Well—after four years over there they still don't know and don't remember. No, they don't remember anything, not even you—their next door neighbor. You see, they're crazy. . . They've lost their minds, they're shell-shocked, frightened, horrified,—outraged! THESE ARE OUR CHILDREN! (An honest investigation of veterans treatment in Federal Insane Asylums might result in a national scandal).

There's a catch to it? You'll take my word for it? No sir, you've been taking some other fellow's word for it too long already. It's time you began to see and think for yourself.

Well what did you find? That's right—seven out of ten of those boys are frustrated, stupefied, out of step, out of place, and NERVOUS WRECKS. Many of them should never have left the hospitals but the hospitals had to make room for others and for more serious cases! They were coming in too fast.

Rossi Candidate For re-election in 4th District

(Political Statement)

Experience in governmental affairs, plus knowledge of local conditions and problems, are cited by Dan Rossi in support of his candidacy for re-election as supervisor, Fourth district.

He was appointed by the board of supervisors to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Harry C. Warner, and was elected two years ago for the unexpired term. Previously he had served as city councilman.

Rossi pointed out that as the Fourth district is entirely within the municipal limits, numerous city-county cooperative projects come before the supervisory board. In such instances, he said, his experience in public office is of especial value.

Owner of a granite company, he has been in business here for 26 years. He is a member of several fraternal and civic organizations. With Mrs. Rossi, he resides at 503 Crosby St.

George Fisher, Candidate For Congress

(Political Statement)

Pointing to the need of adequate regulation to protect the middle-ground Americans from the results of current strikes and shut-downs, George Fisher, longtime San Diego resident, today announced his candidacy for Congress from this district. Fisher will file on both the Republican and Democratic tickets, although he is a life-long member of the former party.

Fisher is a veteran of both wars, and has just returned to the practice of law in the San Diego Trust & Savings Building from four years service in defense of his country. He was discharged with the rank of colonel, after serving in five major campaigns. After V-E day, he was stationed in Germany where he had supervision of some phases of the displaced persons problem.

condition those boys are in,—the boys you saw without legs, or arms, or minds. We are responsible for everything that has happened to Johnny; his shattered body and brain—the fox-holes and mudholes he wallowed in,—his frustration and wrecked life. Unbelievable? It's true! We are responsible for all the sins committed against all American boys. We won't mention the Johnnies and Tommies and Bills who didn't come back but who now lie under the earth all over the world.

Why responsible? Because we were too busy making money! Too busy chasing dollars! We were too busy for anything but BUSINESS. We were too busy betting on horse races, going to boxing and wrestling matches, entertaining ourselves. We were too busy to read a good book that might have taught us something worth while, yet we pay taxes to build libraries. We were too busy to read a newspaper through. The headlines, the funnies and the sports page were enough. We were not interested in politics, but left our innocent boys to the mercy of the politicians! We frittered our evenings away burying ourselves in some picture show that barked a lot of propaganda; lies that created hatred in us. We let a "handful" of un-Christian warmongers interpret and pervert the principles of Christ for us while we stupidly walked down the street proclaiming that we were good Christians. We listened to crooners and smart-aleck, wise-cracking radio actors (Who wrote the script?), and rable-raising commentators! Then to escape any thinking at all we crowded into some fashionable night-club to see some sexy floor show, or loitered in a cocktail bar drinking ourselves into a daze.

That's what G. I. Joe is thinking and he would like to tell us off, but he hasn't the heart. He wouldn't feel so bitter if he thought that after all he had gone through for us we might have changed and become more serious about life, but he says: "We still don't know what the score is."

Remember when our political leaders, both Democratic and Republican, gave us fireside

In the first world war, Fisher fought in three major campaigns, and was discharged as a captain, with citations including the order of the purple heart, and the Croix de Guerre. In the recent conflict, he won the silver star, bronze star, two clusters to the purple heart, and a star to the Croix de Guerre.

A long-time leader in veteran activities, Fisher is a past commander of the Padre Serra post, of the American Legion; a past commander of the San Diego County Council, and a past commander of the 22nd district of the Legion, in addition to serving as judge advocate of the Department of California. He also is past president of the Reserve Officers Assn here.

Fisher has taken a keen interest also in civic and fraternal affairs, and is a past master of the Blackmer lodge, F. and A. M. and a member of both the Scottish Rite and the Shrine.

In Republican circles, he also has been a leader, and was one of the organizers of the San Diego county Men's Republican League, and the California Republican Assembly. He also has served on many Chamber of Commerce committees.

Commenting briefly on his campaign platform, Fisher is stressing the necessity for federal action to stop "disastrous labor conflicts which is hurting the average American, who belongs neither to labor or management.

"The effects of this conflict can be seen on housing, which is one of the most serious problems facing the country," said Fisher. "Production of goods and commodities are absolutely essential to steady jobs and without an adequate return on investment, there can be no production and no steady employment. Restrictions and price control which prevent production must be removed."

Fisher proposes regulation of both management and labor in the public interest.

"Such regulation must be imposed on management and labor alike to make them responsible for carrying out the provision of labor contracts by making them civilly liable for damages for breach of contract", Fisher said.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

We have been illegally held since Feb. 28th as "political prisoners" in our own country. Bail was denied us after having been railroaded on the phony charge of "unlawful assembly". Every legal move to win a new trial or release on bail pending our appeal was turned down on account of Jewish pressure and we remain confined in the psychopathic cell block all the time, although there is nothing wrong with our mentality. We have had a clear record all our lives and we have committed no wrong whatever.

We appealed to Mayor William O'Dwyer, Governor Thomas E. Dewey and President Harry S. Truman to look into the unconstitutionality of our imprisonment, but no answer having been received by us, it is now up to our patriotic friends who believe, like we do, in "Equal Justice under Law," to write individual letters to these highest law enforcement officers of the City and State of New York and our Nation, reminding them of their oath of office to protect and preserve the Constitution and to see to it that citizens' rights of free speech, free press and free assembly are not infringed upon by pressure groups. Otherwise, it may be anybody else's turn next to be railroaded to jail under any pretext, if a Jewish pressure group wishes to put a Gentile citizen "out of circulation."

When will the 130 million Gentile Americans finally realize to what dire consequences this sort of a secret government within our government leads!

A thorough house-cleaning in our government offices is the need of the hour. This fall's elections will provide an opportunity to vote out of office every American trickster, be it the U. S. House of Representatives or among the 32 Senators who will seek re-election.

"The measure of a democracy is the measure of the freedom of its citizens."

Very sincerely yours,
KURT MERTIG ERNEST ELMHURST

German Slaves for France Delivered by U. S. Army

COMPIEGNE, France.—One hundred naked German men filed thru screening rooms at Le Croutoy prisoner of war enclosure No. 15 near here as French doctors examined them and gave United States army physicians receipts as to the prisoners' health and physical fitness. The scene reminded one of the slave auction blocks described in "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

These former soldiers were being handed over to French military authorities by the United States for an indeterminate period of forced labor.

The French doctors pried into the Germans' mouths, counted their teeth, made them flex their muscles and tested their reflexes as they sought strong, sound in wind, able bodied human material to work in mines, on farms, in harbors, or anywhere labor is needed in France.

Library of Congress reports that 64.20 percent of the population was eligible to vote in 1944, and 34.77 percent actually voted. Estimated population was 138 millions; estimated eligible voters almost 89 millions; actual voters 48 millions.

Why Wear Shoes and Clothing ?

April 1, 1946

Dear Dad:

In your speech yesterday at David's party you said that we must first seek the Kingdom of God, and follow his principles to the full extent even in the face of any type of society irrespective of odds, to demonstrate to the world that God still rules supreme in spite of animally concocted hallucinations. We are to live the life of Gods here and now to the best of our perception, even if it leads to a broken and bleeding physical body.

Why, then, under the guise of ambassadorship do you only exercise a part-way regime, in that you would still wear clothes on a hot day, and not let the sunlight reach the whole of the body, as the true nature intended: continue to wear leather shoes, woolen clothing and to consume honey?

In your family, as a young child, did you yield to the whims of your immediate society, and continued meat eating? You did not assume the "practical" viewpoint, but discontinued animal destruction. You were apparently imposing yourself on their society by not conforming, but actually you were declaring a principle of God's kingdom on earth, and let them froth. You would have accepted a broken and bleeding body rather than violate one of God's laws by exploiting and taking part in the destruction of the animal kingdom.

Why, now, do you draw the line, and continue to be a party to destruction? A chain is as strong as its weakest link, and you do not have a full chain of principles.

We are to assert God's kingdom here on earth now to the best of our perception regardless of physical consequences. You now have a group of admirers who like you the way you are, and would like you to continue as you are. You would go to jail if society at large chose to abridge your free speech, but would rather wear leather shoes and woolen clothing than have a broken body, and rather restrict fresh air and sunshine to your whole body than go to jail (by running in the nude in public).

You do all this because you assess relative importance to principles. By exercising all the principles, one becomes only that much stronger; if this were not true, there would be no sense to any principles. Each principle has its strength.

If society deserves your aid, they must permit you to exercise your principles, otherwise they are unworthy of making allowances for. By what token are you forced to violate valuable principles merely to exist in society? If it were law to eat meat and go to war, would you go, in hopes that you could coddle society along on some other lines, and conveniently overlook meat and war for practicality?

You draw the line and talk about relative importances, fully realizing there is no Kingdom of God as long as one stone remains unturned. The principle is to stand in society and let them do their damndest. They hurt only themselves any time they try to force anything upon you. The more principles you exercise, the stronger you become, and the weaker their mundant efforts appear. What is society worth if you imagine you must violate principles in order to coddle them along?

Tolstoy said, "I know that most men—not only those considered clever but even those who are very clever and capable of understanding the most difficult scientific, mathematical, and philosophical problems—can very seldom discern even the simplest and most obvious truth if it be such as to oblige them to admit the futility of conclusions of which they are proud, which they have taught to others, and on which they have built their lives." NATURE OF GRADUAL EVOLUTION

Dear FRED:

We are a peculiar combination of mortal man in a temporary body made of earthly material while the Entity is divine and immortal. Hence you will find corresponding contradictions all along the path of our lives. The situation is properly stated in "the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak". Our job, then, becomes to assemble materials and organize them to respond to the demands and needs of the spirit. And this takes time and labor.

At present you yet partake of the condition of the infant who reaches for the moon because to him it appears to be within reach. But the child learns in time to realize the nature of space and the illusion of sight. As he coordinates the two he becomes aware that the moon is quite away off.

Concerning not letting the sunshine reach the whole body on a hot day. You, too, imagine that to return to the skin condition of a gorilla is "nature", but it is not the white man's nature; it would be retrogression. Our nature has worked hard thru eons of evolution to produce this lovely white-pink skin and the finer it is, to approach transparency, the more beautiful it becomes.

If we leave off clothes on hot days and expose ourselves completely to sunshine we burn up the skin. To protect itself against destruction it produces pigments and returns down the scale to the level of colored races whence we evolved. It is retrogressing to the animal status. If that is your natural bent, then you are not a white man, an Aryan, yet but have to go thru the animal experiences of all those who did not finish their evolutionary education.

The Indian whose whole body is "face" so that he can withstand heat as well as cold, as our face does, can never reach the height of the finer impulses to which a body responds that does not have to employ all its energies to maintain proper temperature. Proper clothing regulates the degree of warmth or coolness at the surface of the skin so that the organism is free to respond to the finer functions of mind, soul and spirit.

Don't be misled by the "health and nature" rackets which destroy the skin functions. Taking sunbaths to excess is as detrimental as burning the skin and that "healthy" tan is nothing of the kind, it is a burnt skin, unhealthy.

Everything in moderation, keeping in mind the nature of the Aryan organism and not aping the gorillas. Your type of reasoning is akin to that of the militarists who claim that military training for murder makes a better man and citizen out of you. It all is retrogression to barbarism.

As to the wearing of leather shoes, wool clothing including silk, the eating of honey: these are concessions we make while yet working to improve the general level. 60 years ago you could not even get the food to live as a vegetarian in the big cities. Our missionaries had to work hard to induce that progress. Now that you benefit by the result of our labors and feel the urge to go even farther, go to it with my blessing. As soon as you produce practical results, as we produced the cafeterias and the fruit and vegetable markets, as well as whole grain products, I shall be happy to make use of your new type of shoes and clothing. Personally I am so tied down to the task in hand that I lack the leisure to attend to the next step. You have leisure which I lack, it therefore is up to you to do the greater things than these your father accomplished.

It is not always a matter of courage in opposing "society" and conventions. The practical angle must be regarded also. When you can produce shoes and clothing that is better, then, naturally, everybody will want it, too.

Just keep in mind why the child is reaching for the moon. It seems so easy and natural, but is it? That does not mean that your reasoning about principle is wrong, only that you must study all sides of the problem and not go off half-cocked. Everybody to his calling. I am doing my share in my line, you go ahead and improve upon the foundation of my accomplishments. Once you understand the principle of evolution you will answer all the questions you put to me above. With love, KOSTI

A write-up in The Broom of April 15th, under the heading "Is Astrology the bunk?" has brought many letters of inquiry regarding our service.

Briefly, we put out AMERICA SPEAKS, an 8-page monthly paper devoted to current events; subscription price $1.00 a year.

But Mr. de Aryan was referring to our astrological service, put out monthly in mimeograph form; in this, we give you a preview of events you are likely to read of in our AMERICA SPEAKS a month later. And so our readers are interested to see our predictions, and then follow them up. The Beacon Light Herald is $2.00 a year, or $3.00 for the two.

Subscribe today, and you will never be without them.

"Freedom From Fear"? Ask the millions of Christians delivered over by Roosevelt to slavery and torture, to say nothing of the atomic destruction hovering over the world.

"Freedom From Want"? Ask the hundreds of millions of Christians being systematically starved to extinction by the Morgenthau-Roosevelt Plan.

"Freedom of Conscience"? Ask the peoples of all Europe and Asia and even in this hemisphere of the imminent danger confronting them today by conscienceless Bolshevism, to say nothing of the many thousands railroaded to prisons here for conscientious objection to the slaughter by Roosevelt's-Churchill war.

"Freedom of Speech"? Whatever is left of it remains because a few, like yourself, stood their ground and defied the Great Liar, Double-Crosser and Betrayer, and the Jewish Gestapo, who by control of the radio, the "movies", "magazines", press, have nearly succeeded in taking over and—characteristically—destroying this Republic.

Why Not Jail All Jews and Communists as "Antis" ?

My Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Thought you would be interested in the enclosed clipping. Just read that last line. Have they got nerve! Wonder how long they think they are going to get away with this sort of thing. Apparently they think that the law is just what THEY say it is.

Those men have been unjustly accused and convicted. Why haven't OUR law enforcement officers arrested any and all distributors of anti-Christian, anti-Constitution, and anti-American literature as "breakers of the peace"? Now that they have established the precedent that anti-anything literature distribution constitutes a "breach of the peace" why not arrest and jail the worst disturbers of all... the Communists?

To my way of thinking a Christian judge who would act as a stooge and tool for the subversive Communists is a worse scoundrel than they are. He is a traitor to his own people and religion. Why in God's name must these people bring down hell onto our heads? They refuse to cease and desist, and are forcing the issue. Mercy be on their souls! Your fighting Nordic,

IN A MOST SIGNIFICANT TRIAL WHICH MAY HAVE FAR REACHING CONSEQUENCES, three Christian Frontiers were found guilty and convicted in the Long Island City Court of Special Sessions, New York, on January 10, for "breaching the public peace." The charges were brought by the Jewish War Veterans against Homer Maertz, former Silver Shirter; Kurt Mertig, pro-Nazi; and Ernest Elmhurst, one of the 29 defendants in the Washington sedition trial. "Breach of the peace" in this case consisted of distributing anti-Semitic literature.

NEW YORK, April 26 (Special).—While the habeas corpus efforts of Attorney Henry H. Klein for release of the 3 Persecuted Christians (Maertz, Mertig and Elmhurst) was turned down by the local judge (and will be appealed), Mr. Klein's friends will be pleased to know of his own personal victory in the Court of Appeals.

Mr. Klein sued the "American Hebrew" for libel; had his case thrown out by the local judge on account of alleged improper service of summons; now a higher court has reversed the judge and ordered the case down for trial.

Our Federal Convention of 1787 Compared to the U. N. O.—Atomic Bomb Could Abolish Tyranny NOW, Without War, and Lay Ground For Permanent Peace

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON (Special) April 28,—I may have a sensational and (I believe) an original idea to present next week, on the science of government. Watch for it. In the meantime—

The world would be far happier if the men representing the United Nations at Hunter College were in agreement on the aims of government and on what constitutes the ideal government. Their ideas of government seem to be as different as the forms they represent, and range from the utmost in despotism to limited republicanism. This diversity is most discouraging.

When in May, 1787, some forty-odd delegates met in Philadelphia representing 12 States whose independence Great Britain had signed only four years previously, there was such unanimity of sentiment as has rarely if ever been approached in world history.

Back of them lay from 125 to 160 years of free and for the most part self-government. They were in this respect unique among all the peoples on earth. They had inherited and long cultivated the arts of freedom.

It is probable that any one of the 11 top delegates at that 1787 Constitutional convention was superior in brains and the science of government to ANY ONE of the 11 representatives on the U. N. council.

Thomas Jefferson, who was our minister in Paris at the time, wrote back that the 1787 conclave was a "convention of 'Demi-Gods'." Among them were Washington, Madison, Franklin, Hamilton, Mason, Morris and Wilson—every man a genius, a Christian and a patriot.

They drew up a constitution without a peer in human history. They had all read Montesquieu's "Spirit of Laws"—the greatest book on the science of government, and it influenced them greatly.

Unfortunately the report of their debates was not published until about 50 years had elapsed, and the famous "Federalist Papers," written by Hamilton, Madison and Jay to obtain ratification of the Constitution, remained unknown to most Americans in the 1820's.

As a result of this public ignorance regarding our REPUBLICAN form of government, a generation of Political Pygmies arose in 1832, subverted our representative system, started the non-Constitutional nominating convention custom, hamstringed the Presidential electors, discharged all Federal civil officials, instituted the evil spoils system to award political heelers, and started our nation on a political road that finally resulted in the Roosevelt despotism, which Washington, Franklin and Hamilton feared and predicted.

When someone suggests "WORLD GOVERNMENT," ask him "WHAT KIND?"— "Federal Republic of Free Peoples" or "Bolshevik Despotism Over Enslaved Mankind"????

Neither the "United Nations" nor a "World Federation" can be a success for freedom and progress UNTIL TYRANNY AND CENTRALIZED DESPOTISMS have been ELIMINATED FROM THE WORLD.

I believe the United States, with the physical backing of the ATOMIC BOMB and the moral backing of the freedom-loving nations, CAN FORCE RUSSIA, SPAIN AND ARGENTINA (as well as Italy, Germany and Japan) TO INSTALL THE MECHANISMS OF FREE GOVERNMENT (as planned originally by Washington, Hamilton and Madison).

If we had the statemanship in America and Britain, we could DO IT NOW. Five years, even three years, hence, MAY BE TOO LATE!

The first aim—the absolute NECESSITY—for a PEACEFUL WORLD is the ABOLITION OF TYRANNY EVERYWHERE!

SOLAR AIRCRAFT NEWS

The razing of the old Neptune Sea Products building, a waterfront landmark, is well under way it was announced by officials of Solar Aircraft Co., owners of the property.

The dismantling of the familiar two-story building situated at the northwest corner of Solar's property will beautify Harbor drive, which skirts along the west boundary, it was pointed out.

Built in about 1915, the Neptune building was one of the first canneries to be constructed here, according to Port Director Joe Brennan. Sardines, and later tunna, were packed there for about 10 years, after which the building was used alternately as headquarters for the Naval Militia, a concern pioneering in self-sealing gasoline tanks, and storage.

After Solar acquired the building it was used for office quarters, and later as a storehouse.

In beautifying this corner of its property, Solar also is moving its garage, adjoining the south gate, into the yard, it was announced.

Several other small buildings in the area are being torn down, Solar officials added.

Conscientious Objectors to War Go On Strike in 2 Slave Camps

LOS ANGELES.—Sixty-seven conscientious objectors, who entered civilian public camps at Glendora and the San Joaquin experimental range, near Fresno, went on strike, with a refusal to work and started the wheels of an investigation by Selective Service officials here.

They quit routine work under U. S. Forest Service officials with allegations that they "were being discriminated against on demobilization as compared with the Army's demobilization."

Selective Service officials are awaiting submission of reports before taking any action. The reports are understood to be enroute to Selective Service headquarters—only authorized agency to deal with such activities.

DEMAND "DUE PROCESS OF LAW" HEARINGS BEFORE DISCIPLINARY PUNISHMENT

Fifty-six men stopped work at the Glendora Civilian Public Service Camp No. 76 as seven others struck at a similar camp near Fresno.

The work stoppage got under way with presentation of the following notice to O. D. Brehman of the U. S. Forest Service, who is acting as commanding officer.

"A large group of men meeting this evening (April 24) have asked us to present in person the following objectives for the current work stoppage:

"1. We object to the use of transfers without the consent of the transferee as punishment;
"2. We object to the use of any penalties without warning in advance, a hearing at the time and the right to appeal;

"3. We insist the two Minersville transfers be rescinded;

"4. We insist that we have positive proof that this (viz. 2) has been done. The men are determined to continue the work stoppage until their objectives are met."

TRANSFER OPPOSED

The protest grew out of the Selective Service office's investigation and subsequent ordering two of the men's transfer from the Glendora camp to the government "punishment camp" at Minersville, Shasta County.

Selective Service headquarters at Washington, D. C., disclosed that the commanding officer of the Glendora camp had been ordered to "line up all 'conchie's'" "and tell them to go to work. Any who refused to work will be turned over to the District Attorney for action." The men continued on strike in defiance of the order.

The striking draft objectors have been at Glendora camp, in lieu of service in the uniform of their country, through periods ranging from six months to three and a half years. Releases are effected on a point system similar to that utilized by the Army. Hardship cases, officials said, are given consideration. Each month, Brehman said, Selective Service headquarters authorizes discharges for a certain percentage of the conscientious objectors from the Camps.

Forest Service officials, whose only alternative to any troublous elements is cutting off the men's furlough time from the camp, were assigned the men last March. Their only interest in the men is to assign them to regular forest service duties and in the event of conditions such as the current one they submit reports of the conditions to Selective Service headquarters here for final disposition, Brehman said.

Work for $5 "Tobacco Money" a Month

Brehman explained that the camp is allowed 66 cents to feed each man daily. Their monthly remuneration was upped from $2.50 to $5 last March 1 when the American Society of Friends (Quakers) turned administration of the camps over to the Forestry Service.

Interviewed, the men voiced their protest. Marvin Shapiro, formerly of New York, Harry Bailey of Berkeley and Howard Goldstein, representatives of the group said:

"We have had to work without pay and against discrimination. We have no dependency allotments for our families and wives. When the Army's demobilization began last May, 87 per cent of its men were discharged—only 44 per cent of the conscientious objectors have gone back to civilian life since last October. This is discriminatory."

W. H. Hanson, a former Los Angeles teacher, displayed a Treasury Department check for $4.33.

"That's all I had to send to my wife and two children for the month of March," he said.

Support Promised

Goldstein said that the American Civil Liberties Union, with headquarters at 257 S. Spring St., is preparing a protest "over our problem here."

BOOM AND BUST

When corn was selling at $2 a bushel the farmer had no trouble paying interest on his mortgage, also taxes, even though he bought himself a new suit or tractor each year. When corn dropped to 13 cents a bushel the insurance companies took over an area in Iowa equal to eight counties. . . . Before we start pulling in our belts. . . . ask our Washington humanitarians why the surplus Canadian and Argentinian beef and wheat are not made available for world consumption, why we subsidize food products into scarcity, why we prevent Europeans producing things they could exchange for food. Until these questions are satisfactorily answered, I, for one, will eat as much as I want and can pay for, without the slightest sense of sinfulness.

Now Britain is bankrupt, wants a war with Russia but wants good old partner—U. S.—to put up the money and the men and the food as usual, like a tramp proposing a partnership with a millionaire. CITY-COUNTY SALES TAX

Prior to Gov. Richardson's term California had no gasoline tax. Now we have State Sales-tax, State income tax, amusement tax, parking tax, business tax and the tax termites advocate a city-county joint salestax. San Francisco Supervisors considered a toilet tax, the city to collect the first 25 nickels deposited in public toilet-door locks each month. Apparently it back-fired and was not adopted. But to decent people they all smell about as sweet.

Red Jews Attack German Voters

GERMANS REFUSE TO VOTE COMMUNIST TICKET

FRANKFURT,—Rioting Jews, storming out of a displaced persons camp at Landsberg, wielded clubs, knives and stones on the German residents of the town, starting scores of street fights, overturning public vehicles and leaving the populace cowering in their homes.

American troops, rushed to the scene in armored cars and jeeps, were forced to fire on the mob before order was restored. An estimated 5000 to 6000 Jewish refugees and German civilians were involved in the fighting which lasted more than four hours, authorities said.

JEWS STONE YANKS, CALL THEM "GESTAPO SWINE"

At Frankfurt intelligence headquarters it was reported that the Jews first attacked Germans going to the polls in the council elections when they heard a rumor that two camp employees had been abducted.

A military official at Landsberg, which was captured by the U. S. Army just one year ago, said the Jews also hurled rocks at American troops, shouting "Gestapo" and "S. S. Swine."

AMERICANS SURROUNDED

One unit of American troops, surrounded by an estimated 1000 Jews and attempting to silence several Germans were forced to fire into the ground and over the heads of the crowds, he said.

Landsberg is in the southern part of the American occupation zone, 35 miles west of Munich.

NOT ONE SINGLE VOTE FOR RED-JEW PARTY

Meanwhile, latest reports showed that the Christian Democratic party rolled up a strong lead over all other parties in the election of councilmen in the American occupation zone of Germany. The Communist party, which generally trailed all other political groups, made its worst showing in the Karlsruhe district of Northern Baden where Communist candidates did not get a single vote of 33,504 cast.

Herman Schwinn Reports

(Concluded from last week)

At present, these "German nationals", former members of the German-American Bund, who were denaturalized under false pretenses and in complete discord with the late rulings of the Supreme Court, are interned because they are "potentially dangerous enemy aliens", that being the reason given by the government. For the sake of argument only, let us suppose that such "potential danger" ever existed during the war, then it certainly must have diminished one year after the war with Germany ended! In fact, as far as former Bund-members are concerned, such imagined danger really was eliminated with the Supreme Court's decision reversing the conviction of the Bund-leaders. Having gone into the activities of the Bund to such extent that the Supreme Court criticized the length and volume of the "evidence, it then concludes: (U. S. vs. Keegan)

"There is also much to the effect that the Bund is pursuing lawful aims within the constitutional rights of its members, and that its activities need not be hidden from government agencies," and:

"... but if the Bund and its membership were, prior or subsequent to January 1, 1940, engaged in illegal activities, other than those claimed to prove the charge laid in the indictment, the record is bare of evidence of any such."

And further:

"The Bund desired this country to maintain neutrality by not having our soldiers go to foreign shores. These views were then shared by many loyal citizens, and some of them were enacted into law by congress."

We know, of course, that there never existed such "potential danger", that these people were as good Americans and as loyal as the next fellow. That they had cherished their citizenship and taken their duties as citizens very serious. What difference does it make then, under our form of government, whether their opinions did not coincide with the wishes of the controlling forces to get us into war with Germany. They should be freed on Bond immediately, until the Supreme Court speaks again on the matter, frees them permanently and permits them to remain in the country of their choice.

Let us listen again, friends, to the voice of the highest tribunal in the land: (Bridges vs. Wixon)

"We as a nation lose part of our greatness whenever we deport or punish those who merely exercise their freedom in an unpopular though innocuous manner. The strength of this nation is weakened more by those who suppress the freedom of others than by those who are allowed freely to think and act as their consciences dictate."

"Many of these aliens, like many of our forebears, were driven from their original homelands by bigoted authorities who denied the existence of freedom and tolerance. It would be a dismal prospect for them to discover that their freedom in the United States is dependent upon their conformity to the popular notions of the moment. But they need not make that discovery. The Bill of Rights belongs to them as well as to all citizens. It protects them as long as they reside within the boundaries of our land. It protects them in the exercise of the great individual rights necessary to a sound political and economic democracy. Neither injunction, fine, imprisonment nor deportation can be utilized to restrict or prevent the exercise of intellectual freedom. Only by zealously guarding the rights of the most humble, the most unorthodox and the most despised among us can freedom flourish and endure in our land."

As long as this mighty voice speaks thus, my friends, let not your faith be shaken in the future of our country, regardless of how much bitterness may have been in your heart at times, for such words spoken by the United States Supreme Court pledges the continuation of constitutional government with the guarantees of the Bill of Rights. And if the time before justice finally triumphs seems unendurably long, let us consider the words of John Ballantine Gough, who said: "There is not a social, political or religious privilege that you enjoy today that was not bought for you by the blood and tears and patient suffering of the minority."

Wishing you a happy Easter, and with my best regards and many thanks to all our mutual friends who have done so much to comfort and help, I remain

Sincerely yours, H. M. SCHWINN,
District of Columbia Jail, Washington, D. C.
